LOCAL MATTERS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Yesterday was a day of rain and sunshine.The Raleigh market is flooded with blackberries.Our correspondents will please remember to write only on one side of the paper.RATTLESNAKES.—Two large rattlesnakes have been seen at the old City Cemetery. Visitors would do well to be on their guard.EXAMINATION AT THE INSTITUTE FOR THE DEAF, DUMB AND BLIND.—The classes in the Deaf and Dumb department were examined publicly on Tuesday. The exercises were very entertaining, and proved to all the proficiency and faithfulness of the kind teachers.
It is impossible for us to give a full idea of the examination to those who have not been so fortunate as to witness similar performances.Classes in History, Geography, Arith-matic, Composition, and Grammar passed a rigid examination and astonished all who attend with their admi-ble promptness and correctness in answer.Step by step in the exercises our wonder increased that so much could be accomplished under such great disadvantages. We more and more admired the patience, devotion, skill and efficiency of the Board of Instruction.Mr. Cook was present and gave in Sign Language an incident which had just happened at his house, and the pupils wrote it on the slates, each one using his own language and arrangement, showing the excellence of their attainments.At night, the Chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity by ladies and gentlemen, to witness the Concert of all the pupils. The exercises were opened with prayer by Dr. Craven. Then came singing by the Blind, music on piano, class exercises, stories in sign language, pantomime performance by the Deaf and Dumb, and presentation of Rewards of Merit for the graduates.These were Bibles for the Blind presented by the American Bible Society, and Bibles for the Deaf and Dumb presented by the Institute. The Concert afforded rich entertainment until a very late hour. It certainly added to the already exalted reputation of Mrs. Nellie Young, as an adept in music. To all the teachers and performers we, on behalf of the delicious audience, return sincere thanks for hours of rich enjoyment. Mr. Cook again related to the Deaf and Dumb, a long story which was rendered in writing by them with a degree of accuracy that under the circumstances was remarkable. These examinations were repeated to learn from the accomplished Principal, Mr. Tomlinson, are to be repeated annually.In closing this report, we take pleasure in recording our very high estimate of the present management of the Institute, and in assuring its patrons and all friends of its pupils of the assiduous effort of the teachers and all concerned, to render them as comfortable as possible, to give them all the useful and practical instruction they can, and to duly regard their moral and spiritual interests.DOINGS IN RIDGEWAY.—Shipping lishment on the patent Baltimore plan. A great improvement on the Alden patent.Improving the Peter property, nursery, vineyard and buildings.Enlarging the Scott store and residence, which is to have a fine piazza added to it, and the whole repainted.Fencing in and painting of the large fine hotel.Cleaning and enclosing a number of town building sites.Organizing the madder and floriculural companies, new enterprises, full of promises for the wealth of the State.French beaver, to make this region lence, in the Union.A correspondent furnishes us the following:LOCKVILLE AND ITS SURROUNDINGS.

—A few days since, business led me to visit this village on Deep River, an enterprising place, and destined at no very distant day to become a place of importance.The brief inspection of an hour, though enough to impress me so favorably, forbids a minute description of its enterprises.There are several stores and two or three mills. The River is spanned by an elegant bridge. The mills are run by the finest water power in the world, capable of driving any amount of machinery.There is no good reason why this should not become a great manufacturing centre. It is the dividing line between the pines and oaks—between the cotton, grain, corn growing and Turpentine sections—at the head of steamboat navigation—and a rail road ready to do the bidding of shippers—an inexhaustible supply of the best coal just where it is needed, with three or four hundred thousand tons lying there ready for use. If any one could desire more advantages—well, he can find them at Lockville.I had the pleasure of meeting our old friend Silas Burrus, who carried me to the steamer lying just below the bridge and in other respects I enjoyed his courtesies.You will just here please excuse a digression which is not intended for the old gentleman's eye. A strange dream or other equally delusive prognostic has led the old man to think that he is going to be Superintendent of Public Works in North Carolina. What a delusion! As you walk along with him you may occasionally hear him syllable Sapark. Now and then, evidently, Sapark's ghost looms up before him, and like Banquo's it will not down at his bedding.But to the boat. It has every convenience (like any other boat); but the most interesting part to me was the the cooking apartment, where supper was preparing (I was hungry). Well as I was not invited to remain for supper, we left, near by Mr. Betts showed me one fifth of an acre in clover from which at the first mowing he harvested 950 pounds of cured clover. 'Tis again ready for the blade, and will nearly equal the first cutting. Your agricultural readers will take due notice, &c.
Other items of interest I must omit.Now, Mr. Editor, if you ever have occasion to go to Lockville, call on Capt. Eline, a most affable gentleman —who lost an arm at Sharpsburg—and who now lodges at the Hotel—the house where Corwells lodged and tried to rest during his flight from Guilford C. H., pursued, as he was by the blacksmith, Green. Green. But we will leave General Green to follow him and I'll return to Capt. E. I asked him to recount to me the particulars of his exploit with old Mr. Alcott in Deep River a year or two since. As many of your readers may not have heard of it at the time, by your permission (and without his) I repeat the substance.Capt. E. and Mr. Alcott wishing to go across the river launched a little canoe, and in the midst of the river, water twenty feet deep, they discovered that the boat was evidently sinking.The old gentleman, Mr. A., said he could not swim. Capt. E. as the boat went down, told Mr. A. to hold to it and keep his head above water till he with one arm, could swim ashore, a distance of two hundred feet and bring another to him.It was not far above the dam, the boat and man were drifting down. Capt.
E. reached the bank and looked back to see Mr. A. who in his fright had let loose the boat, sinking, drowning.Capt. E.'s boat was chained and locked. A little man, with one arm, yet he succeeded in breaking the chain, and hurriedly shoved his boat from shore, but alas, he had neither paddle nor pole. Heroically he paddled with his one hand to the spot where he last saw the drowning man. Fortunately, he discovered the skirts of his coat near the surface of the water. He attempted to draw him in the boat, but it also being a small one, dipped water at every effort. If he had had two hands he might have held with one and paddled with the other. But one who has heard how he lost one. Managing to get the drowned man's arm between his knees he held it thus and oared with the one he had, he reached the bank at the end of the dam, dragged the dead man to land and by rolling him and by every resort by which a drowned man is brought to life, in about thirty minutes the heart throbbed, the pulse began to beat and old Mr. Alcott thus had his life given to him by Capt. E. who thus showed himself no less a hero in water than in war.The Baptist Sunday School of Hallockville on the 2nd of July make an excursion to Lockville, and I hereby commend Capt. E. to them and them to him.

Litchford, Trustees.WAKE FOREST COLLEGE COMMENCE-MENT, TUESDAY, JUNE 25TH.—The Commencement exercises opened with a meeting of the Board of Trustees, in the College Chapel at 11 o'clock, A. M.
Dr. W. T. Brooks in the chair.The annual reports of the President, Bursar and Treasurer were received, all of which were highly encouraging.Over one hundred students had been in attendance the past session.The financial status of the College, as reported, is greatly improved.The Agent of the College, Rev. Jno.
Mitchell, reported he had secured $12,000 towards the endowment fund in less than twelve months.It was proposed to enter at once upon extensive improvements upon the College and campus, and Dr. Pritchard of our city was made the chairman of the improvement committee.The Trustees determined to make an earnest and vigorous effort to secure a liberal endowment for the College.The usual scholastic degrees were conferred upon students who were proficient in certain schools of the College, and the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity upon the Rev. N. W. Wilson, of Richmond, Va., formerly of Chapel Hill, N. C.A Committee was appointed to establish a law department in the College.The address before the Alumni Association was delivered last evening by the Rev. S. H. Shuck, Pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Charleston, to a large and select audience in the College Chapel.The theme was well chosen—SUC-CESS IN LIFE, and was most admirably treated. It was marked in dictation reports with wisdom and give evidence of unusual appearance and accuracy of scholarship. The manner of delivery was very fine and the entire speech well sustained. We propose to give our readers a general synopsis of this splendid effort of Mr. Shuck in tomorrow's issue. It will be remembered by many of our readers, the peculiar history of this distinguished young divine. His father the Rev. J.
L. Shuck, was the first Southern missionary to China, who with his estimable and devotedly loved lady, worked faithfully in the fruitful vocation of eighteen years. On his return to this country, the subject of this notice was born on the high seas while on the passage. He was educated at this College, and graduated with distinction in the class of 1856, after a residence of several years in this State, first a Professor in the Mills Female College at Oxford, and afterwards Principal of the Madison Male Academy, he moved to Charleston, S. C., where he now resides.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The 11 o'clock train from Raleigh considerably augmented the large crowd already in attendance. Gov.
Vance, the "Lion of the Day" was received at the train by the Committee, of which Prof. Simmons is Chairman.
The large crowd of country people, near and adjacent to the College, had assembled along the Railroad, to view one more of the handsome features of the Governor. As the Governor stepped from the train, the splendid Oak City Band, struck up "Hail to the Chief," and it was only by a strenuous effort that the "boys" could restrain themselves from cheering the man that was a friend to them in need. Show us the North Carolina soldier that does not cherish the name of Gov. Vance, and we will show you a man that is unworthy the notice or esteem of his neighbors.At 12 o'clock, we repaired to the College Chapel, and kindly furnished with a seat on the rostrum, by the Chief Marshal, Mr. M. D. Burney, of Alabama.
President Wingate stated to the audience, that it was necessary for the audience to exercise a little degree of patience, as Gov. Vance was tired and fatigued by his travels, and must have a little recuperation before his speech.At a quarter past twelve, the Governor entered the Chapel, escorted by the Chief Marshal, and followed by the Philomathean and Upsilon Societies.
As always the case, his appearance brought down the house. As soon as this applause subsided, Dr. Wingate called on the Rev. S. H. Shuck, of Charleston, to lead in prayer. Governor Vance was then introduced to the large audience. Even if we had time and space, it would be impossible to give even a general outline of his excellent address. His theme, "Politics Philosophically Considered," was treated just as Zeb

THE CANVASS.

The canvass now being conducted by Democratic candidates and speakers in North Carolina has, we venture to say, never been exceeded for earnestness, zeal and ability.

The efforts of Merrimon, Hughes, Shipp and Graham have already aroused the people of the East, and from the information we receive from the counties which have been canvassed, we are not only highly encouraged but have every assurance of a larger Democratic vote than has ever been given in the history of the State. With the exception of a few who are Radical office-holders and Radical office-seekers, the white men of the East will vote together in this contest and their votes will be cast against the extravagance, frauds and outrages of the Radical party.

We have equally favorable accounts from the centre and from Hon. Jas. M. Leach's District—where some of our candidates are now speaking.

In the extreme West, Gen. R. B. Vance, our nominee for Congress in the Eighth District, aided by Gen. Clingman and others, are waking up the sturdy yeomanry of the mountains, and in some of the counties West of the Blue Ridge, if our information be correct, we will make almost a clean sweep.

If the signs of the times do not deceive us, we will carry both branches of the Legislature by overwhelming majorities, elect seven out of eight Congressmen, and place A. S. Merrimon in the gubernatorial chair by such a large majority as will bewilder and confound our enemies.

We make these calculations, not with any desire to boast, but on the ground that we have every indication that the people of North Carolina are aroused from their political slumber, and are determined to put forth their strength to beat down Radicalism at the polls, and thus save themselves and their State from impending ruin.

WE KNOW THEY HAVE THE POWER—WE BELIEVE THEY WILL USE IT.

We have but to put forth our strength, and the day is ours!

SHAMELESS PERSECUTION.

The case against Josiah Turner, Jr., which was continued in the Federal Court Tuesday, is, many respects one of the most shameless and infamous persecutions ever instituted in a Court of Justice.

We were promised a full statement by a member of the Court familiar with the whole proceedings, but up to the time of going to press, we have not received it.

Suffice it to say that Mr. Turner has done everything in his power to get his own and the Government's witnesses in Court—sending in one instance, twenty-two miles for a witness for the prosecution.

Although the case was set for last Friday, it was not taken up till Tuesday, and was then continued on account of the absence of three witnesses for the State who were in the city, but did not answer when their names were called!

Mr. Turner and his friends are confident of a triumphant vindication when a trial is had. He is charged with obstructing the United States Marshal in the performance of the duties of his office.

The case is one of political persecution and malevolence—and is intended to operate for political effect.

It will have exactly the opposite effect intended. It will only make manifest the desperation of Radical villainy and malice. It will disgust all fair-minded men among Republicans, and will serve to show the people the depth of meanness to which latter-day officials descend, when they attempt to wreak their vengeance on political opponents.

We will have more to say on this matter hereafter.

THE ERA AND COL. ROGERS.

The last Raleigh Era repeats the charge of fraud against Col. Sion H. Rogers in connection with Hester's Real and Personal Estate Agency.

That paper should take the trouble to inform itself about the facts of the case, and Col. Rogers' connection with the Land Agency before making any further allusions to the matter.

We gave Col. Rogers' statement of the affair yesterday, and the facts mentioned by him will be corroborated by leading members of the Era's party. This charge against Col. Rogers' good name will stir up his friends, and cause them to work more vigorously and zealously to secure his election.

The unsullied reputation of Sion H. Rogers for honor and integrity can not be injured by the shafts of malice and calumny. He defies his enemies and despises those who attempt by slanderous falsehoods to cast a stigma upon his character.

HELPER'S TRIBUNE.

We have received the second issue of the Tribune, the Liberal Republican paper, published at Salisbury, by H. H. Helper, Esq.

Mr. Helper exhibits marked ability and enterprise in the conduct of his new paper, and we believe it will be of great service to the cause of Greeley and Brown in North Carolina.

The friends of the Liberal movement should give the Tribune a wide circulation.

THE DEMOCRATS OF EDGEcombe.

The Democrats of Edgecombe have put forth a most admirable ticket. It is composed of live, active, intelligent, progressive young Democrats. There is not an old fogey to be found on the list.

Henry C. Bourne, Esq., the nominee for the Senate, has taken an active part in the politics of Edgecombe. He is an able campaigner, and strikes heavy blows. He will do most effective work. E. R. Stamps, Esq., the able and talented Editor of the Tarboro Enquirer, is a most estimable and popular young gentleman, of high personal character and is destined to make his mark in the politics of the State.

Mr. J. C. Bellamy, is an intelligent and enterprising young farmer of fine social position and large influence, and will do his full duty in the campaign. On the whole, we congratulate the people of Edgecombe on the good selections they have made, and although they have no hope of overcoming the large negro majority, yet their gallant nominees will do all that can be done to diminish that majority and bring out the full Democratic vote for the State ticket.

GEN. R. B. VANCE.

We are informed by a gentleman who was present, that Gen. Robert B. Vance, our standard bearer in the Eighth District, made a most excellent speech at Asheville to a large and enthusiastic crowd on the 21st inst. Our informant heard of several Republicans in Buncombe who would support our ticket. This agrees with other reports we have heard from that county.

Gen. Vance expects to get a larger majority than that received by Hon. J. C. Harper in 1870.

The Radicals of Buncombe are greatly demoralized. There is much dissatisfaction among them in that as well as several other counties in the Eighth District.

In fact, the Radicals throughout the State are sadly hacked and feel that their doom is near at hand.

The people will speak in August, and the wicked will stand agast.

GEN. SCALES.

We had the pleasure of seeing in our office yesterday, Gen. A. M. Scales, of Rockingham, who has been in the city for several days, in attendance on business before the Supreme Court.

Gen. Scales is well known as one of the most gallant and popular officers in the late Confederate army, as he is now one of the most patriotic and distinguished citizens of the State.

His name was frequently mentioned in connection with the gubernatorial nomination at Greensboro, but as the General was then under disabilities, he wrote a letter, declining to allow his friends to use his name.

Gen. Scales will soon enter the canvass, and his voice will be heard, appealing to his countrymen in behalf of the Democratic cause, and in defence of the principles of civil and Constitutional liberty.

IMPORTANT.

We copy and endorse the following article from the Charlotte Democrat.

The amendments proposed to the State Constitution are important and deserve to be studied and considered by every voter, without distinction of party.

The Democrat says:

"It is important that the Democrats and those in favor of making necessary changes in our State Constitution, should secure a two-thirds majority of the Legislature for such reform. The proposed changes are not suggested in a partisan light, but as necessary for the interests of the people of the State. For instance, that clause of the present Constitution which requires the levying of a tax to pay the interest on the State debt (millions of dollars of which are illegal) must be repealed or changed, or the Legislature will be obliged to levy an onerous tax to be paid to the swindlers and rogues."

VALUABLE PAPERS.

We give up a part of our editorial space to-day to the article prepared by the Executive Committee of our party. The series of documents now being issued by that Committee for campaign purposes, should be placed in the hands of every voter in the State.

We will publish another instalment to-morrow.

William H. Marshall, convicted in Richmond, Va., of embezzling the funds of the James River Steamboat Company, was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. A motion will be made for a new trial.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says nine-tenths of the Democratic papers in the United States are in favor of Greeley and Brown being endorsed by the Baltimore Convention.

The corner stone of the new Richmond (Va.) College was laid on Monday by the Masons with imposing ceremonies.

Mrs. Sarah Cole was killed by lightning at Pittsylvania Court House, Va., on the 23d inst.

Eighteen persons were received into the Second Presbyterian church, Richmond, Va., on Sunday.

It is said that there are ten aspirants for Superintendent of Water Works of Petersburg, Va.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

There were received from all sources for the Educational Fund during the year ending September 30, 1869, $169,810.02. This sacred School Fund was disbursed by the Radicals as follows: Expenses, $1,138.18; Lent to the University, $3,000.00; Lent to pay members of Legislature, $58,000.00.

Total disbursed, $167,158.18; Mark: $6,158.18, expenses—and nothing for schools! Receipts for year ending Sept. 30, 1870, $393,973.76.

Disbursed for schools, $38,981.86; Expenses, $2,014.00; Invested in special tax bonds, $150,000.00; Lent to University, &c., $12,000.00.

$202,905.86. By their own showing the Republicans in two years of the wildest extravagance and profligacy, could spend only $38,981.86 for common schools. Yet they threw away $150,000 of school money by buying special tax bonds. And it has been suggested that Holden got $30,000 for making this investment. Littlefield says Swenson paid Holden $30,000, and it is believed it was in this transaction—which they stole away the education of our poor boys.

The Conservatives were elected in 1870—there were received for school purposes during the year ending Sept. 30, 1871, $229,990, and there were disbursed during that year for school purposes, $175,000.

We do not know yet what amount of money will be expended for common schools in this State during the current year, but it will be fully as large as last year. The cause of education can never suffer at the hands of Conservatives. They will neither misappropriate the sacred fund—nor misapply it. The poor children of the land are the sons of the State, and the Conservatives will strive in the future as in the past to secure to them all the benefits of education.

The Republicans spent in two years for schools only $38,981.86.

She Conservatives more made way with all the educational fund. They sold out the railroad stock for $158,000 and bought special tax bonds, and they also invested the $135,000 received from Congress for an agricultural college, chiefly in special tax bonds. They bought these special tax bonds with the educational fund, to put money into the pocket of the swindling ring who ran the Legislature and ruined the State!

They were actuated in this transaction by the same corrupt motives and influences that led them to advertise that they would pay interest on our State bonds. "That was to aid the swindlers of the State in selling their stolen bonds." It was a shallow trick to give our worthless bonds a false credit in New York. They were endeavoring to prop the falling fortunes of the swindlers, and to accomplish this purpose they did not hesitate to invest the sacred educational fund of the State in these bonds which every body knew were valueless, and would never be paid.

Such then is the record of the Republican party! They have been false to every profession. They have been faithless to every trust. They have betrayed the people in every particular. They made way with the entire educational fund. They did not keep open the common schools. They cheated the poor children of North Carolina out of their education.

They levied high taxes and spent the money for illegal purposes. They added large sums to the public debt. They were wasteful, extravagant and dissolute. They sold themselves to a ring of sharpers and brought disgrace on the fair name of our people and State. The reports of the Phillips Investigating Committee and of the Shipp Investigating Committee, which expose all of their transactions and corruptions will in future time be known as the "Record of Infamy" or "The New History of the Forty Thieves." And our children in days to come will regard with astonishment and mortification the supineness and indifference of the people to all these frauds and misdeeds and public robberies. Future generations will feel it a lasting disgrace and reproach that the rulers of North Carolina were thieves and swindlers.

Conservative Meeting in Warren.

At a meeting of the Conservative party of Warren county, held at the Courthouse in Warrenton on the 22nd of June 1872, on motion of William Eaton, Dr. T. J. Pitchford was appointed Chairman, and Benj. P. Davis Secretary.

The objects of the meeting were explained by the Chairman in a few appropriate remarks. The Chairman having expressed a desire that other gentlemen would address the meeting upon the important issues now before the country, Mr. Walter A. Montgomery arose and delivered a stirring, eloquent and patriotic address, which was listened to with deep attention, and received with applause.

The following resolutions were then introduced by Mr. William Eaton, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, 1st. That the issue now before the freemen of the United States in relation to the Presidency is narrowed down to a contest between the present incumbent, and the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention, that we regard the latter as far superior to his competitor in talents, virtue and patriotism, and much more worthy of the confidence of the people.

Resolved, 2nd. That in our opinion, the Convention to assemble at Baltimore, on the 9th day of July next, ought not to make a nomination of a third candidate for the Presidency, but should recommend to the Democratic-Conservative party the support of Horace Greeley.

Resolved, 3rd. That the State ticket made out by the Greensboro Convention is an excellent one, and deserves the support of the people of North Carolina.

Resolved, 4th. That an Executive Committee of ten persons of Warren county be appointed by the Chairman, whose duty it shall be to adopt such measures as, in their judgement, may be calculated to secure the advancement of our principles, and the success of our party in the approaching elections in North Carolina, and that said Committee be particularly requested to do every thing in their power to awaken a lively interest in public affairs on the part of the Conservatives of the county, and induce them to attend at the polls and cast their votes.

On motion of Col. Wm. S. Davis, it was resolved that it is expedient to nominate Conservative candidates for the Legislature, and that the Committee be instructed to make the nominations.

The Chairman appointed the following persons as members of the Executive Committee: W. A. Montgomery, Henry A. Foote, Jas. Y. Christmas, E. H. Plummer, Benjamin F. Collins, Joseph Drake, John Watson, Ferny Southall, John E. Boyd and John W. Wiggins, and on motion the name of Wm. Eaton was added to the number. In motion it was resolved that the proceedings be published in the Raleigh News and Sentinel.

The Campaign in North Carolina--Governor Vance to Take the Situation--The Prospect.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 22.

Governor Vance will begin the canvass next Tuesday, in Fayetteville. On Wednesday he will deliver a literary address at Wake Forest College. He will then speak through the Eastern counties every day until the Baltimore Convention. He takes ground for Greeley, subject to that Convention, and his name is applauded whenever mentioned. He favors the Cincinnati platform substantially, but will deal mostly in State issues, advocating the proposed amendments to our State Constitution, retrenchment and reform. He will denounce usurpations of Caldwell and the North Carolina Supreme Court, and the corrupt legislation which bankrupted the State. The Governor predicts that the Conservatives will carry the Legislature by a large majority, and hopes even for two-thirds, so as to put through the constitutional amendments. If the Baltimore Convention endorses Greeley he says we can easily give him 10,000 majority.

Merrimon, the candidate for Governor, is gaining strength every day in the West. The main strength of the Radical party here is the reprobation of the revenue service. They buy without scruple many such with Government money and patronage, and they manage to get others into trouble about liquor or tobacco, bring indictments against them, and then agree to let them off if they will vote the ticket. In some cases, where they can't trust, they hold the proceedings over them in terror until after the election. This rascality Governor Vance proposes to denounce on the stump. A large vote will be polled in August. Special to Richmond Dispatch.

NATIONAL PRESS REUNION AT BALTIMORE.

By a consultation of representative journalists from various parts of the country, it has been decided to hold at Baltimore, on the 9th of July next, a grand national reunion of members of the editorial brotherhood, and of representative printers of the country who favor the liberal movement begun at Cincinnati, and who may together feel it both pleasurable and desirable to acknowledge the honor which the people of that nation propose to confer for the first time upon the fraternity and craft in the election of Horace Greeley to the highest position in their gift. We agree with the New York Express that this movement is most judicious and well timed, and we hope to hear a prompt and healthy response to it from all parts of the country.—Exchange.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shoccoe Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on Lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years.

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Home Insurance, while, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

“Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Thoughtlessly the maiden sung, From her girlish, gleeful tongue; Sang as little children sing, Sang as the birds in the air; Fell the words like lightning down On the current of the tune—
“Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee.”

“Let me hide myself in Thee,” Fell her soul no need to hide; Sweet the song as song could be;
And she had no thought beside;
All the words unheeded fell From lips untouched by care, Dreaming not they might be On some other lips a prayer—
“Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.”

“Rock of Ages, cleft for me,” Twas a woman sang them now, Pleadingly and prayerfully; Every word her heart did know, Rose the song as storm-tossed bird Beats with weary wing the air, Every note with sorrow stirred—Every syllable a prayer—
“Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.”

“Rock of Ages, cleft for me,” Lips grown aged sang the hymn Trusting and true;
Voice grown weak and eyes grown dim,
“Let me hide myself in Thee,” Trembling though the voice and low, Ran the sweet strain peacefully, Like a river in its flow.
Sung as only they can sing Who behold the promised rest—“Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee.”
